

5th Grade News

From room 305

December 14th, 2016

Upcoming Events

There will be a cold weather policy in effect tomorrow and possibly on Monday as well. Please read the email for details.

Tomorrow is our Christmas pageant. The students have been working hard and it shows! Please make sure to drop your child off in the parish hall between 6:30 and 6:45 tomorrow. Students are to wear their Sunday best. Christmas colors are optional.

Christmas break is coming up and our class turtles need a home. If your child would like to care for the turtles over break, please send a note to school by Friday saying that you will allow it and that someone will be able to transport the turtles to your home on or before Wednesday at 1:30.

We will have a class Christmas party on Wednesday. Students may bring a treat to share with the class. Please make sure the treat has no peanuts in it. We will also be having a small gift exchange. If your child would like to participate, he or she can bring a wrapped gift in the $10-$15 range. Students should bring a gift that would be appropriate for someone of their own gender, or a gender neutral gift.

News from Mr. Slawik

News from Mrs. Johnson

Please be sure your child is practicing the multiplication facts.

The chapter test retakes were this week; grades are posted on Power School. Some of the students were not prepared the 2nd time and showed little or no improvement. There is practice online but many are not taking advantage of it. Geo 5 quiz is Friday. Please make sure to practice online.

News from Ms. McGrath

In Science, the 5th graders continuing to learn about plants and are making a living diagram of the structures and functions of plant parts.

In Religion, we are talking about how the Church is made up of many people with different talents, but we all have the same goal. We discussed ways that we can follow that message in our daily lives.

Upcoming tests and quizzes:

- Spelling test on Friday in Language Arts
- Geo 5 quiz on Friday

News from Mrs. Smith

In Language Arts class this week, the students will finish reading their novel and will enjoy watching the film version. In English, the students have begun the adjective portion of the noun/adjective unit. Spelling test is being returned and Lesson 16 is due tomorrow. The spelling test is Friday.