

5th Grade News

From room 305

February 1st, 2017

Upcoming Events

Catholic Schools Week has been rushing right along. Tomorrow the students will participate in service day by packaging bible passage valentines for a church to hand out. Tomorrow is the last day to bring in toiletry items for the survival kits.

We will hold our annual Chuck E. Cheese night at the Village Crossing Chuck E. Cheese from 3:00-9:00 tomorrow. 15% of proceeds will go to our school

Students can dress down on Friday in school spirit wear. Friday also marks the beginning of the girls' intramural weekend.

News from Mrs. Johnson

The math test was returned. The students are studying division of decimals. In resource they have also been classifying triangles, problem solving, and identifying rules and extending patterns.

News from Mr. Slawik

Students are finishing chapter 5. The test will be on Tuesday. Please practice for the test online. Students have their Geo 7 worksheet

News from Ms. McGrath

In Science, the 5th graders are figuring out why certain plant adaptations exist and why not all plants are the same.

In Religion, we will be going into detail on each of the sacraments beginning with Baptism.

February Birthdays

Dara Mullen	February 10 th
Lauren Mullen	February 10 th

Upcoming tests and quizzes:

- Spelling test on Friday in Language Arts
- Test on chapter 5 in Social Studies

News from Mrs. Smith

In Reading this week, the students will discuss advantages and disadvantages of being wealthy as we read "King Midas". In English class, we hope to complete our noun/adjective unit. Spelling Lesson 20 is due tomorrow. Remember that Challenge Words are part of our weekly tests. In creative writing, the students will write an opinion essay in class.