

5th Grade News

From room 305

August 31st, 2016

Upcoming Events

Parent Night is tomorrow! The evening will start at 7:00 pm in the gym and then parents and teachers will move to the classrooms. The evening will be split into two different sessions. I will be gearing the first session toward homeroom parents, so please stop by room 305 first!

School picture forms were sent home last week. We will take pictures on Wednesday, September 7th. Students should come to school in their picture clothes that day.

News from Mrs. Johnson

The children are continuing chapter 1 in math. Please send Mrs. Johnson an e-mail with your e-mail address so she can add it to the class group.

News from Ms. McGrath

In Science, the 5th graders have been using the scientific method to solve problems. We have been differentiating between observations and inferences. We will have a short quiz on these concepts on Thursday.

In Religion, the students are learning about Divine revelations and how they can feel God's presence on a daily basis.

News from Mr. Slawik

The students took their first Geo Quiz today.

They are finishing chapter 1 in their text books and will have a test next week.

News from Mrs. Smith

In Language Arts class this week, the students will read the selection, Frindle, and will discuss the development of plot. They will review complete and simple subject and predicate. Spelling Lesson 1 test is being returned. Spelling Lesson 2 is due tomorrow. The test is Friday.

Reminders

- ❖ If your student is taking a foreign language through Rosetta Stone, they should have a pair of headphones with a USB connection.
- ❖ Make sure your child has an extra shirt or smock for messy art projects.
- ❖ Book order forms have been sent out and are due with payment by September 7th. Our class code is Q7QRH if you plan to order online.

Upcoming tests and quizzes:

- Spelling test on Friday in Language Arts
- Science quiz on Thursday
